THE `TREVOR PSALTER'

1984080

Blwyddyn / Year

Adroddiad Blynyddol / Annual Report 1983-84

Disgrifiad / Description

The `Trevor Psalter', a handsome glossed psalter of the late 12th century written probably in the West of England, possibly in Wales, with a commentary, based on that of Gilbert de la Porrée, which is otherwise unknown (NLW MS 21953D). Similarly derivative commentaries occur in manuscripts associated with Reading Abbey and Llanthony. The 15th-century binding is by a recognized (possibly London) binder. There are some 15th-century glosses in English. The manuscript is named after `John Trevor', a name which appears in a 15th-century hand (the reading `Trevor' not beyond doubt) in the margin of f. 112. .
